

Communication & Language

- I show an interest in songs and rhymes
- I am learning new words rapidly and begin to use them in communicating with adults and peers
- I enjoy listening to stories one to one or in a small group
- I can respond to simple instructions, with visual cues to support understanding when needed
- I question why things happen and sometimes give explanations

Mathematical Development

- I can recite some number names in sequence
- I sometimes use numbers in my play
- I can use some maths language such as 'more' or 'a lot'
- I might begin to represent numbers using marks on paper or on my fingers
- I am beginning to notice shapes in patterns and pictures
- I am beginning to categorise by size

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

- I can separate from my main carer with support
- I can seek out others to share experiences
- I show affection and concern for people who are important to me
- I can express my feelings to familiar adults
- I can usually tolerate a short delay in my needs being met
- I am beginning to make relationships with my peers

Physical Development

- I am beginning to be independent in my self-care
- I can help with dressing and undressing myself
- I can tell adults when I am hungry or tired
- I am beginning to show some control over mark making equipment
- I may show preference for a dominant hand

My Learning in Nursery Autumn 1

2019

Topic: Why do you love me so much?

We are settling into nursery, exploring the environment and learning the routines. We are thinking about who we are and the people who are important in our lives and why

11.9.19 – 18.10.19

Literacy

- I can distinguish between marks I make
- I have favourite songs and rhymes
- I am beginning to show an understanding of rhyme and alliteration
- I show an interest in pictures and print in books and the environment

Understanding the World

- I have a sense of my own immediate family
- I am beginning to have my own friends
- I might imitate my experiences in pretend play
- I might begin to recognise similarities and difference between my family and others
- I might remember and talk about significant events
- I might have questions or make comments about the natural world

- Expressive Arts and Design
- I can join in singing my favourite songs
- I enjoy singing and dancing and ring games with friends
- I can sing to myself and make up simple songs
- I can begin to use representation to communicate such as drawing
- I begin to observe what adults do and imitate them when they are not there
- I can join construction pieces together
-